YOANN RONSIN

Guide and helicopter & seaplane specialist

Founder of Sentiers Prives, Yoann made Canada his home 17 years ago.

Following his passion for the outdoors, he first started as a hiking guide.

His personal motto : Excellence!

Thanks to his outstanding hands on knowledge, his all you can wish for as your Quebec guide.

He is also the point of contact for any question related to our unique fly and fly program.

His passion for helicopters and seaplane is contagious.

"His attention to detail and excellence, turns each travel into perfection"

LAETITIA RAISOIR

French speaking market specialist

Lifelong traveler and nature lover, Laetitia dropped her suitcases in Canada in 2005.

After visiting many countries, this is the one she picked to create a family. Her tourism education and background helped her develop incredible organisation skills and a keen eye for logistic management.

Mother of 2, she is the best advice you can ask for when it comes to family vacation. She also deals with our service providers on daily basis, maintaining amazing relationships and quality control. We consider this is the way to create a strong quality bond between your expectations and the service we are providing.

“When she is organizing your vacations, you know you won’t have to worry about anything!”

Western Canada

LORY JOLY

Western Canada Manager

With over 15 years in the tourism industry, she has experienced many aspects of the job.

In Canada only, since she arrived in 2011, she successively taken the role of “office manager”, “program coordinator” and “logistic manager” in the Canadian Rockies.

Finally, she became the Western Canada manager for Sentiers Prives. She is your pass to success for your stay in this part of the country.

Not only she will provide the best advice to put together the itinerary of your dream, but she will also be overseeing how the trip unfolds and assists your client on site.

“Websites and brochures can only take you so far... Having her assisting with a traveling experience is an unevaluable asset”

Communication

DOROTHÉE VIGAN

Marketing & Communication Manager

With her unshakable optimism, Dorothée was born a traveller.

With numerous travels and professional experiences, she especially enjoys combining her skills in communication and travels promotion, especially those from Sentiers Prives.

Your travel experience starts with Dorothée's informative newsletters, photo packages brochures and interactive maps.

At the moment, we can find her working hard on our upcoming website.
